ABOUT THE LACC

Established in 1991, the Luxembourg American Chamber of Commerce is proud of its commitment to building bridges between North America and the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. By providing our members with economic information and business-oriented strategies, we offer insights into a global operating environment – coordinated from the historical setting of The Luxembourg House in New York City.

The LACC offers an excellent framework for the fostering of international partnerships and prospective business ideas. We host seminars, conferences and networking events that promote economic and cultural exchange, introducing our members and friends to innovative perspectives on U.S. businesses and the local community.

THANK YOU!

“Alone we can do so little;
together we can do so much.”
- Helen Keller
